A HIGH CLIMB.

A Party of Ladies and Gentlemen Ascend the Sierra Buttes.

The Sierra, Cal., Tribune of the 15th instant says: A party consisting of ladies and gentlemen of Sierra City went up on the highest point of the Sierra Butte mountains Wednesday. They had a fine day of it; the only fault found was that the wind was cold. The highest peak is about 8,000 feet above the level of the sea, and thus affords a person a fine view on a clear day of the entire surrounding country for hundreds of miles. Snow to the depth of fifty feet, which remains there the year round, can be seen only a few rods from the peak. A person in ascending the last few rods has to be very careful not to make a misstep, as the rock is almost perpendicular.

Justice Court.

Judge Young this morning overruled the demurrer filed in the case against Claude Pinkerton, prosecuted under the town ordinance, refused a jury and continued the case for trial.

"Cousin Rodney"

Sharp Real Estate Deal.

Rice Boyd of Uniontown, Penn., has been pasturing his cattle on a 900,000 coal field, never suspecting its value. He sold it to a sharp neighbor a few days ago for $600, and the purchaser disposed of it at once for $90,000.

Hand Forfeited.

The bond of W. L. Davis, the Gallop, N. M., murderer, who was captured in February last in San Francisco by his mistress disclosing his identity to the officials and brought to Albuquerque, has been forfeited in the District Court.

Anguish Unspeaking.

Is endured by the victims of inflammatory rheumatism, and any form of the disease may reach that agonizing phase or attack the heart and cause death. Unhappily they who feel its preliminary twinges seldom realize this. Like other possibly dangerous maladies, rheumatism is often disregarded at the outset. Well will it be for him if his brief notice shall serve as a warning of future peril or pain to a reader troubled with incipient rheumatism. The proper sequel will be an instantaneous resort to the great preventive depurant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, whose brief of professional commendation popular experience has confirmed. There is no finer or more genial antidote to the virus of rheumatism in the system. Borne in its origin, it is free from the objectionable attacks to dependent poisons liable to be taken more than the infinitesimal dose. The Bitters conquers malaria, indigestion, liver and kidney troubles.

Brazilian Government to Fulfill all Imperial Obligations.

The Brazilian Revolution.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Nothing has been received at the State Department to-day concerning the revolution in Brazil. The failure to receive additional information leads the Department officials to think the cables have been seized. Among the Navy officers no surprise was expressed at the news of the revolution.

An officer said that twenty years ago, when he was in Brazil, there was a general feeling that when Dom Pedro's reign was ended, a Republican form of government would be instituted.

Lieutenant Barry, who recently returned from Brazil, says the change which has come to pass was openly talked of among Brazilians as probable to occur, and they expected it any time. To the people of Brazil, he said, it could not appear to have been sudden.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Dispatches received here this afternoon from Rio Janeiro reiterate the statement that the proclamation of the Republic met with no opposition.

Later intelligence received at Rio Janeiro indicate that Bahian and Pernambuco were in a tranquil state.

People everywhere are so absorbed in the new order of things politically that business is now at a complete standstill.

There is said to be considerable mystery at Rio Janeiro in regard to the departure of the Emperor and his family. It is asserted in some quarters that he has not yet left the country. The British mail steamer Atrato, from Montevideo for Southampton, is due at Rio Janeiro to-morrow, and some believe the Imperial family will take passage on that steamer to Europe.

Commercial dispatches are now forwarded from Brazil to foreign countries without scrutiny or delay. Dispatches, however, relating to the political situation, or giving any information in regard to the new Government, have to be submitted to a censor, and the result is that the only intelligence about the revolution which has reached the outside world, except the very meagre facts that have got through in commercial telegrams in cipher, is that which has met the approval of the Government censor.

A dispatch has been received at the Brazilian Legation here in London from Dr. Barbosa, Minister of Finance of the new Government, directing the Brazilian Minister to notify the London Stock Exchange that all financial engagements entered into by the Imperial Government will be faithfully observed by the Republic.

Another Chinese Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 18.—Pun Garp, who owns an interest in a general merchandise store in the Chinese quarter, was murdered early this morning by an unknown assassin, who escaped, after stealing a sack containing about $650. The murdered Chinaman occupied a room in the rear of his store, and his dead body was found there by one of his partners this morning. There was a frightful gash across the abdomen, and the body presented a horrible appearance. It is supposed that robbery was the only cause for the crime. The police have no clue to the murderer.

Railroad Wreck.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18.—The limited mail west on the Pennsylvania road ran into a landslide last night, wrecking the engine and baggage car. Fireman John Good was fatally injured. The engineer was badly hurt, but will recover. Had the engine fallen to the right instead of the left, the entire train, with its load of two hundred souls, would have gone down the embankment a hundred feet below.

The Gallows Cheated.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Nov. 18.—Chung Sing, who was to have been sentenced to-day for murder in the first degree, was found in his cell this morning insensible from the effects of opium, and will probably die.

The Brazilian Republic.

By Cable and Associated Press.
RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 18.—The new Government has announced that it will firmly maintain order. It is preparing a circular to foreign Governments relative to the overthrow of the Empire, which will be telegraphed to them through the Brazilian representatives abroad.

The Province of Bahian has signified its adherence to the Republic, and the news from the other provinces shows that they are also in favor of a republican form of government.

The Land Question.

By Associated Press.
ATLANTA, Nov. 18.—The Convention of the Knights of Labor to-day went into Committee of the Whole on the land question.

The following resolution was adopted: "That land, including all natural sources of wealth, is the heritage of all people, and should not be subject to speculative traffic. Occupancy and use shall be the only title to possession of land. Taxes upon land should be levied upon its full value for use, exclusive of improvements."

The Only Witness Dead.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—It has been discovered that the notorious woman who testified on the trial of the Malley brothers at New Haven, for the murder of Jennie Cramer some years ago, which created a national sensation, died in one of the lowest dives in this city last Thursday. With her death goes all hopes of the exact facts of Jennie Cramer's death ever being brought to light.

Canada Objects.

By Associated Press.
OTTAWA, Nov. 18.—Sir Fredric Middleton has left here to look into the coast defenses of British Columbia. There is only a force of about 300 there now, and Great Britain desires to put an increased force there and charge the expense to Canada. This, Canada objects to, and Middleton goes out to look over the ground with a view to making recommendations regarding the matter.

Withdrawn From the Marine Conference.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—At the Marine Conference to-day Admiral Vill of Chile announced that he had been requested by Captains Gama and Maurity, delegates from Brazil, to say that, in view of the present condition of affairs in their country, they would not longer sit in the Conference.

Brazilian Securities Off.

By Cable and Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 18.—Brazilian securities fell five per cent. to-day. It is difficult to effect transactions. The strike of the bakers fixed for to-day was small. Only 450 went out, the demand of the others having been granted.

Territory Divided.

By Cable and Associated Press.
BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Germany and Belgium have agreed to divide the district Moresnet between them. Lieutenant Rust, in a letter dated a week later than the last report, does not mention the massacre of Dr. Peters and party.

The Prince Frightened.

Labouchere writes that the Prince of Wales "is better than he was, but it is an undeniable fact that his health is precarious and that he will require to treat himself more or less as an invalid, and entirely to change his manner of life. The Prince, having been thoroughly frightened, is a tolerable docile patient, although I hear that his doctors did not approve of the journey to Greece and Egypt, as the various functions at Athens will involve more fatigue than it is prudent for him to encounter."

Thinks the White House Unhealthy.

Private Secretary Halford has returned to his duties at the White House, but he is still far from robust. He is convinced that the Executive Mansion is in a bad condition as regards plumbing and ventilation, and lays his illness to these defects.

Ohio's Governor-Elect.

The new Governor of Ohio, Hon. J. E. Campbell, is still a young man, being only 46 years old. He has had, however, an extended experience in public affairs, having served several terms as Prosecuting Attorney in Butler county, Ohio, and two terms in Congress.

Warmly Received.

John Case, the surveyor, who was implicated in the attack on the Chinese camp near Albina, Or., has been captured at Vancouver, Wash. He had a dangerous scalp wound. His partner Bassett died from wounds received at the hands of the Chinamen.

Fatally Injured.

Samuel Deering, the engineer of a flouring mill at Seattle, was caught by a belt and thrown into the shaft of a large drum and then tossed upon a platform. He was terribly bruised and torn and died in great agony.

An Agreement Between Two Railroad Companies.

A Small Naval Display.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Amid the booming of cannon, the dipping of flags, waving of handkerchiefs and hundreds of hats, and cheers from as many thousand throats, Admiral Walker and his squadron, comprising the ships Chicago, Boston, Atlanta and Yorktown, with bunting flying in all the gay panoply of war, sailed majestically down North river shortly before noon to-day. Accompanying the men of war was the Dolphin, which went as far as Sandy Hook, having on board as passengers, Secretary Tracy, Secretary Proctor, ex-Congressman Kasson, Congressmen Herbert, Rush, Elliott, Thomas and others. Ex-Secretary Robeson and Admiral Gerhardt, guests, were taken on board the Dolphin from a barge, and just as the barge left the dock ex-Secretary Whitney arrived and the barge returned to the dock for him. In honor of his arrival Admiral Walker ordered a salute of thirteen guns to be fired. At 11:20 the Chicago moved after a salute of nineteen guns, and passing between the Dolphin and Atlanta, led the way to the bay.

Testimony for the Defense.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—In the Cronin case to-day Peter Koch testified that Kunze made the acquaintance of Coughlin while trying to ferret out the authors of the dynamite explosion at Lynch's distillery. Subsequently he changed his name because of trouble with another man who threatened him with arrest. James Highland testified that he and his cousin Jeremiah drank two glasses of sherry each and took a cigar with O'Sullivan in a saloon in the neighborhood of the Carlson cottage on the night of Sunday, May 5th. Witness is somewhat taller than Coughlin, and his cousin is about the height of Kunze. This testimony was introduced to contradict that of saloon-keeper Nehman, that O'Sullivan, Coughlin and Kunze drank sherry and took a cigar in his saloon on the night of the murder.

Railroad Agreement.

By Associated Press.
BOSTON, Nov. 18.—An official of the Union Pacific said to-day of the statement that the Union Pacific and the Denver, Texas & Fort Worth roads had consolidated, that anticipatory of what may come, but nothing has yet been done. Another gentleman in a position to be well informed says the preliminary papers were signed in New York on last Wednesday. The agreement is of much more importance than a traffic agreement, and means really the absolute control of the Fort Worth road. Details of the plan are being gradually worked up in New York, but it will be some time before they will be given to the public.

The Coffee Market.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—There was great excitement and a big attendance at the Coffee Exchange this morning, due to the interest felt in the Brazilian situation. Up to 11:30 the usual Rio cable had not yet arrived, and all attention was centered on the expectation of the news it would bring. Coffee advanced from fifteen to fifty-five points over Saturday's closing. On the first call 20,750 bags were sold.

International Conference.

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The International American Conference met at noon, Secretary Blaine presiding. The Brazilian delegates were the only notable absentees. The entire session was devoted to the business of organization. The Conference then adjourned until Wednesday.

DR. TYRRELL, Secretary of the State Board of Health of California, has fallen among his professional brethren, and the impulse to take a back at his prostrate form has given a bond of union to more physicians than have acted in harmony for some time. The trouble is all about the warnings in Dr. Tyrrell's recent reports against the indiscriminate invitation to the consumptives of the world to come and breathe in health in our healing air. The question is what effect that sort of breathing has on the air. The State Board of Health maintains that consumption is contagious, and that the presence of abnormal numbers of people afflicted by it tends to impair the salubrity of the State.

Dr. Charles G. Toland tells the Examiner that he calls this conclusion "ridiculous beyond question." Dr. Henry M. Fiske thinks the report "a very foolishly concocted one." Dr. J. N. Aiken asserts that Dr. Tyrrell has made a "grievous mistake." Dr. Joseph Prosek believes it "very wrong to sound such an alarm to the world." Dr. H. M. Ferguson maintains that no "man of knowledge or sense" would be afraid of a consumptive. Dr. Walter J. Hadden calls the report "very ill-advised."

This is the general tone of professional comment, but Dr. Tyrrell is not without support. Dr. Nathan Rogers thinks that the contagion of consumption is dangerous to invalids, "and to a certain extent to the general community." Dr. L. L. Dorr alleges that the disease is dangerously infectious. Dr. H. M. Sherman says that Dr. Tyrrell is right. Dr. C. T. Deane maintains that "consumption is certainly a contagious disease, and the influx of Eastern consumptives is no benefit to the State."

The ideas of Dr. Rosenstern seem to be more worthy of consideration than those of many of the physicians. He says: "There is no ground for fear from the immigration of consumptives from the East. The disease is in itself dangerously contagious, and it is not safe to sleep with a consumptive. Yet this is far from being a consumptive State. I do not like such wild assertions as have been made by Dr. Tyrrell by any means. Before he sent out such a rumor he should have looked into the increase of population in the southern counties and compared the number of deaths with such increase. Then, if the result proved that the contagion was so very bad, it would have been time enough to ask for a stop of immigration."

The Examiner says that, under the circumstances, the verdict of the public will be "Not proven," and that means that the Board of Health did well to call attention to the matter. The subject is too important to be allowed to drift unheeded. If consumption be dangerously contagious there is need for effective measures of isolation or disinfection. The board and drug money of Eastern patients is a small item compared to the health of the State. On the other hand, if there be no danger we ought to know it so that there may be peace in the sanitary belt. Let the Board of Health and its adversaries fight the matter out, and when they have reached a definite conclusion let them tell the public what it is.

It is beyond the comprehension of the GAZETTE to understand why any Western man can cast a vote for Tom Reed of Maine for Speaker of the next House. Reed is the worst enemy of silver and does not think there is anything west of Chicago worth protecting. He is intensely "Eastern" in all of his ideas and has not a sympathy in common with the people of the West, and should be elected, we cannot expect anything favorable to our interests to come from him. We should think that the people of the West had seen enough of Reed to convince them that he is not the friend of a single interest of ours and would set upon him in every way possible. Much depends upon who is Speaker in the silver fight to come up in the next Congress, and we hope to see all the new States and a solid vote from the West cast against the gold bug.

SLIPS OF THE TONGUE.

Amusing and Embarrassing Blunders Caused by Accident or Stupidity.

"I never open my mouth but I put my foot in it," was the curious complaint of some unlucky wight, who might have received consolation had he reflected on the number of offenders that daily keep him company. A writer in Chambers Journal tells of a number of blunders as much amusing. The guardsman's remark to the English nobleman who was in the habit of affably conversing with soldiers, "I like you, my lord; there is nothing of a gentleman about you," offers an example of the kind. "How many deaths?" asked a hospital physician. "Nine." "Why, I ordered medicine for ten." "Yes; but one would not take it," was the startling reply. "Hill! where are you going at this time of night?" said a gentleman to his servant. "You are after no good, I'll warrant!" "Please, sir, mistress sent me for you, sir," was the response. A gentleman said to the waiter of his club: "Michael, if I should die, would you attend my funeral?" "Willingly," was the hasty answer. "Well, Michael, that isn't very complimentary." "No, sir, I didn't mean that, sir; I wouldn't be seen there, sir," was the waiter's consolatory reply.

"A child may often be expected to put his or her headless little foot in it," as the phrase goes. For instance, a youngster one day begged an invitation to dinner at the house of a friend with whom he had been playing. At the table his hostess anxiously inquired: "Charlie, can you cut your own meat?" "Humph!" said the youngster, "I was having away," "Can't I? I've cut up quite as tough meat as this at home!" People who are destitute of tact might take warning from such juvenile malapropos, but such does not often appear to be the case, judging by the numerous examples to the contrary.

A millionaire railway king has a brother who is little better than himself is remarkable as having a very prominent nose. Once the railway king dined at a friend's house when he sat between two ladies, who talked to him very loudly, rather to his annoyance, but he said nothing. Finally one of them shouted a commonplace remark and then said in an ordinary tone to the other: "Did you ever see such a nose in all your life?" "Pardon me, ladies," said the millionaire, "it's my brother who is dead."

You can imagine the horror of the lady who indulged in such personal remarks, yet she was no more awfully placed than the hero of the following: When dining at a certain castle a Mr. T., after the ladies retired, remarked to a gentleman present that the lady who sat on his right was the ugliest woman he had ever seen. "I am sorry to hear that," said the gentleman, "that you think that my wife is so ill-looking?" "Oh, no, sir; I meant the lady who sat on my left; I made a mistake." "Well, sir, she is my sister."

Alluding to newspapers, it may be remarked that advertisers and unpracticed writers therein through ambiguity of words and phrases often commit absurdities that may be touched on as further illustrating our subject. A country paper once related how, "during the celebration, a child was run over wearing a short dress, which never spoke afterward."

It is not surprising that foreigners sometimes fail to catch all the shades of meaning in our words. A Frenchman translated Shakespeare's line, "Out, brief candle," by: "Get out, you short candle." And the expression, "With my sword I will carve my way to fortune," was rendered: "With my sword I will make my fortune cutting meat."

Advertisers often give amusing specimens of composition, of which this is an example: "Lost by a poor lad tied up in a brown paper with a white string a German flute with an overcoat on and several other articles of wearing apparel." A miller attempted to testify to the merits of a powder for destroying vermin by saying: "A fortnight ago I was full of rats, and now I don't think I have one."

Examples more of the "bull" genus also come under the title of this paper as cases in point. For instance, a newspaper was running a serial story called "The Truth." One week, so much space being devoted to other matters, the editor was unable to continue the story, so made the following announcement, containing perhaps more truth than any other item in the paper: "The Truth" was crowded out of this issue on account of the press of more important matter."

A beautiful gentleman who visited a school kept by a young lady was asked by the teacher to say a few words to the pupils. This was his speech: "Scholars, I hope you will always love your school and teacher as much as I do." A tableau of giggling pupils and a blushing teacher attested the effectiveness of his words.

The lecturer put his foot in it as thoroughly when he prefaced his discourse upon the rhinoceros with: "I must beg you to give me your undivided attention; indeed, it is absolutely impossible that you could form a true idea of the hideous animal of which we are about to speak, unless you keep your eyes fixed on me." A certain preacher, discoursing upon Bunyan and his works, caused a titter among his hearers by exclaiming: "In these days, my brethren, we want more Bunyans." Another clergyman, pleading earnestly with his parishioners for the contribution of a cemetery for their parish, asked them to consider the "deplorable condition of thirty thousand Christian Englishmen living without Christian burial." Still more curious was the clerical slip with which we conclude. A gentleman said to the minister: "When do you expect to see Deacon S— again?" "Never," said the reverend gentleman, solemnly; "the Deacon is in Heaven."

A few more smiles, a few more tears, some pleasure, much pain, a little longer hurrying and worrying in the world, some hasty greetings, abrupt farewells, and life will be over, and the injurer and the injured will be laid away and ere long forgotten. It is not worth while to hate each other.

— THE —
OPERA HOUSE
DRY GOODS STORE.

Fall * Announcements!

IT IS NOW GENERALLY CONCEDED BY MEN OF SCIENCE who attend to all the weather experiment stations on this coast that this locality in particular is going to be very cold this winter. In consequence of these indications,

C. W. BOOTON

Went to San Francisco and spent the past two weeks purchasing a

Stock of Fall and Winter Goods,

The giganteness of which cannot be fully realized in any way but by calling to see it at the OPERA HOUSE DRY GOODS STORE, an will only say that the Prices at which he intends to sell his new stock will be unprecedented in the history of dry goods in Reno, as "Quick Sales and Small Profits" is his motto in business.

To enumerate his stock and give it entire justice he should have all the columns of a newspaper devoted to his advertisement only, but as he cannot get any more room in the columns of this paper, he will only enumerate some of his special heavy importations.

First—His stock of

Men's Underwear

At the following prices, note them:

20 dozen of men's white merino shirts and drawers at 35c each, regular price, 75 cents.

Hotels and restaurants supplied at lowest prices at W. T. Craig's. Store closed on Sundays.
Those who have tried those fresh oysters at Leadbetter's pronounce them the best brand in the market.
People in want of the finest oak, cherry and walnut furniture should not fail to examine E. C. Sessions stock and prices.
For a quiet and pleasant retreat, drop in at S. L. Cahoon's agency for John Wilelands bottled beer. A nice lunch set out daily.
No matter what hour the trains come, the Riverside Hotel bus never fails to meet them all, and carries passengers and baggage free of charge.
A look into C. J. Brookins' show window will satisfy you that his stock of home manufactured candles cannot be excelled anywhere.
During the coming winter J. J. Becker's hot noon lunches will prove a great convenience to those who have no time to go home for their midday meals.
Whether the St. Louis silver convention proves a success or not, George Becker will continue to dispense a hot soup lunch and a glass of beer for 12½ cents.
Miss Emma Gibbs' new stock of millinery is now arranged for inspection, and all in need of anything in that line should not fail to favor her with a call.
There is nothing in the line of all kinds of the best stationery that cannot be had of C. A. Thurston, who also carries a full assortment of school slates and writing tablets.
By leaving orders with J. M. Fulton at the N. C. & O. R. R. office he will have first class mahogany, oak or pine wood, either limed or split, delivered to your house. Electric Bitters.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise. A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all diseases of the liver and kidneys, will remove pimples, boils, skin rheum and other affections caused by impure blood. Will drive malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all malarial fevers. For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters. Entire satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price, 25 cents, and $1 per bottle at Hodgkinson's drug store.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than those of sickness. The young mother vividly remembers, that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of the cough, and in turn administered it to her own offspring and always with the best success. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

The Best There Is.

A new typewriter has been invented by the party who invented half of the Remington and all of the Caligraph. It has no ribbon, no wooden bars, but is all steel, prints true and without any blur. It costs an even hundred dollars, and worth two of any other machine. It prints better, wears longer, is easier to learn and works faster, besides other recommendations. C. A. BRAGO, Agent.

Consumption Incurable?
Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with abscess of lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made." Jesse Middlestead, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of lung troubles, was given up by doctors, am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at Hodgkinson's drug store.

There is but little, if any danger from whooping cough, when the cough is kept loose and expectoration easy, which can always be done by the free use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

THE GOLD HILL FIGHT.

Keogh Knocks Bendigo, the Great Unknown, Out in Three Rounds. The boxing contest at the Gold Hill Athletic Club rooms, Gold Hill, Saturday evening, for a purse of $500, between William Keogh of Virginia City and "Bendigo," the unknown, resulted in a victory for Keogh in three rounds. The battle was fought in a 20-foot ring with four-ounce gloves. Bendigo weighed 188 pounds and Keogh 170 pounds.

Time was called at 10:45, and round one was fought scientifically though cautiously, showing no advantage for either man.
In the second round both men played carefully a few seconds until Bendigo led, hitting Keogh full in the face, slightly stunning him. Keogh recovered, however, in a moment, and got a left-hander in on the Unknown's mouth, drawing first blood, which was quickly followed by another, which so dazed Bendigo that after a few more blows he fell limp against the ropes, from which he was knocked to the floor. He staggered to his feet, but a few more blows brought him to dust again, when time was called and he was carried to his corner.
In the third round Bendigo started in determinedly, but too weak to do any harm, and receiving a few blows on the face went down. Rising again, he was punished severely by several sledge-hammer faces, and falling into his own corner was unable to rise when time was called again.
Keogh now challenges any man of his weight (170 pounds) to a contest, London prize-ring rules to govern.

LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY.

The most beautiful and successful play of the Age.
The sale of seats is now progressing at Nasby's for "Little Lord Fauntleroy." Among the theater-going public the applications for seats have been very numerous. The success of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has been something remarkable. In London the play has been running for over two years at Terry's Theater. It was presented at the big Broadway, New York, for 275 nights. In Boston, where it first received its American production, it ran 187 nights, and it had a wonderful run in Chicago, Baltimore, San Francisco and other cities. It is said that none can withhold praise from Mrs. Burdett's charming work. An eastern critic has termed it: "The most beautiful and successful play of the age, and the greatest drawing dramatic attraction now before the public."
We will have a chance of witnessing this wonderful success next Wednesday evening at the Opera House.

Peter Larsen's Grave.

A Lassen Mail reporter has visited the grave of old Peter Larsen and says the monument, which is of very soft rock, is fast crumbling away, and if neglected, in a few years there will be no monument left to mark the grave of the old pioneer. The monument bears the date of April 24, 1859. We think that the citizens of Lassen county should in some manner raise sufficient money to purchase and erect a handsome monument in place of the old one.

A Temperance Reformation.

From a gentleman who recently arrived from Mason Valley a GAZETTE reporter learns that Major Hilton is making an almost complete "scoop" of that rural locality. He has secured the names of seventy-eight people, who promise to no longer spend their earnings for gin. A Fizz Switch saloon, which had, before the Major's arrival, been taking in from $50 to $60 per day, is now doing a business of less than $2 per day.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It sets gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. WINDSLOW'S SWEETENED SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle, 75 cents a box.

"No sir! Go and take a course of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla and you won't have the dyspepsia, sir!"
John Arrall, of 623 Golden Gate avenue, writes: "You may also use my name as an additional authority that 'The California Remedy,' Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, will cure dyspepsia and liver and kidney complaint. It has done it for me."
James Wells, Oakland, Cal., writes: "I suffered acutely from dyspepsia for years, scarcely being able to give perfect satisfaction, or to eat a meal without the distressing pains of indigestion. Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla relieved me of it entirely."
